Richmond College Trustees Solicit Scholarships for Them.

ABANDON CURRY MEMORIAL

Trustees Not Encouraged by the Family and Friends of Deceased-Rockefeller Money.

One of the matters of special interest which came up at the semi-annual meeting of the Richmond Coilege trustees on Thursday was whether or not scholarships to young women students at the scholarships should be solicited. This is an interesting departure. The snow storm of Wednesday night prevented the usual attendance of outof-town members. Of those living at a distance only Rev. George Braxton Tay-lor, D. D., of Hollins, got to the meet ing.

The condition of the college, as reported by President Boatwright, was graitfying. The ression is moving smoothly along and the attendance is good. Much interest is feit in the movement in the Legislature to repeal the rive against selling liquor to students, end Dr. W. E. Hatcher and Dr. W. R. L. Smith were appointed a committee to co-operate with the University and other colleges in the effort to prevent the proposed legislation.

Dr. Gardner's report on the assignment of college scholarships was interesting. Some years ago Mr. Gustavus Milhiser, of this city, founded a scholarship in the college to be given to a night school graduate annually. Besides this, there are several others in the college founded by Richmond friends. The late Mr. T. C. Williams gave $1,000 to be named for his daughter. Miss Ella Williams; Mrs. J. B. Jeter. $1,200 to be named for her neoned husband. Dr. Jeter. The First Baptist Church holds one for $1,000, and Mr. N. W. Bowe one for $1,000, to william B. Gray some years ago made a donation of $1,200 in honor of his father, and the late Mr. Thomas F. Pollard gave $2,500 to be called for his wife. Mrs. Luile I. Pollard. The filling of these annually is a matter of much interest. There are other scholarships equally well endorsed from loyal friends outside of Richmond. It was agreed at this meeting that the agent of the college shall solicit scholarships for young women as well as young men.

ABANDON CURRY MEMORIAL. ABANDON CURRY MEMORIAL.

The report of the Endowment Committee was submitted by Hon. J. Taylor Tilyson, showing the progress of the work on the Rockefeller conditional endowment. The report covered the period up to February 1, 1994, and snowed that over $42,000 has been collected from Virginia, supplemented by Mr. Rockefeller's proportionate gift of $2,200. Another instalment is expected from New York scon.

Perhaps the most interesting decision of the meeting was the abandonment of the J. L. M. Curry Memorial. Dr. Curry had been a most persistent advocate before the board of the founding of a technological school in Richmond, and in connection with the college. It was natural, therefore, that at his death the beard should propose a school of the board should propose a school of this character to be named in his honor. After the preliminaries were all ar-ranged, it was learned through Mrs. Connally that Mrs. Curry did not wish this to be done, and as she died without offering any assistance to the move The board had a pleasant hour so over their luncheon furnished by ladies of the First Baptist Church.

Chairman Peters, of the Market Committee, was out of the city, but the report and list of needs for his committee here-tofore printed were filed with the body and list of needs for its committee heterotope printed were filed with the body by Clerk McDowell. Mr. Pollard made a vigorous fight for the consideration of the budget by the entire committee, but in this he was outvoted, and the subcommittee will take the matter up shortly.

The regular meeting of the Smithdeal College Literary and Musical Society was held last evening in the society's hall with a large audience in attendance. Mr. Sawyer entertained the audience with several gramophone numbers, including "The Holy City" and "Hiawatha." Miss Ellen Maxwell followed with an excellent regulation, "Angelina Johnson." The Misses Timberlake sang a duet sweetly. The main feature of the evening was a "Literary Saiad," in which the entire society participated, and which was theroughly enjoyed. NEW YORK, Feb. 11, 1994.—The Phenix Insurance Company, of this city, loses but about $250,000 by the Baltimore fire, while its monthly income is nearly $500,00; its surplus is $1,700,000; capital, $1,000,0.0; gross assets $7,500,000.

The Phenix, though one of the oldest, is one of the most progressive, largest and most solid of the fire insurance companies. Its lesses of $440,00 in the Chicago fire in 1571 and of nearly $500,000 in the Beston fire in 1872 were paid promptly and without inconvenience, though at that time the Phenix was comparatively small to what it is now.
